

DAVY HIGH YIELD FUND

FROM NEW IRELAND

FUND PERFORMANCE SHEET JULY 2019

FUND OBJECTIVE

The Davy High Yield Fund (the 'Fund') invests in stocks which historically pay higher than average dividends. The thinking behind this strategy is that companies with an ability to pay higher dividends on a sustained basis generally provide stable growth opportunities.

MONTHLY COMMENT

The Fund returned 1.80% in July. The equity market rally that began in late-December last year continued through July with the MSCI World Index adding another 2.79% bringing the total return in 2019 to 20.70%. Technology and internet-related stocks were the best performers following strong earnings reports from companies such as Alphabet, Intel and Apple. The current earnings season is going well relative to expectations, and equities are also supported by expectations of additional liquidity from global central banks.
